OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH STAFFING

When businesses need Occupational Health Nurses (OHN) to deliver health and safety programs to their workers—they need skilled clinicians who can immediately move in step with their company.

That is where Clinical Resources shines. Our principals are experienced Healthcare Professionals who know what you need to keep your employee health programs running smoothly. Our qualified nurses deliver excellent results to your employee health, wellness and safety programs.

IT TAKES A HEALTHCARE PROFESSIONAL TO KNOW WHAT IS BEST

As healthcare professionals we personally screen and select the right professionals for our clients. Few staffing firms can say the same. Our knowledge of healthcare enables us to quickly place the right nurse chosen for their:

- Knowledge of workplace hazards
- Understanding of employee health programs
- Knowledge of toxicology and epidemiology
- Skill at managing occupational and non-occupational illness or injury

From day one, our clinicians will show the initiative and judgment required to keep performance levels and efficiencies high—whether, you are implementing a new occupational health program or ensuring consistent standards.
